

Larry Green, CPA

Larry Green is the recipient of the Small Business Administration, San Diego and Imperial County 2001 Accountant Advocate of the Year Award. This award recognizes him as an outstanding businessperson in the San Diego and Imperial County areas. Larry possesses 17 years extensive experience providing financial auditing and analysis services to governmental agencies, not-for-profit organizations, and privately owned companies. He is experienced in the application of federal and state tax laws, as they relate to not-for-profit entities, as well as with government auditing standards and the requirements of federal regulations. As an auditor for the Denver, Colorado firm of Ashby, Armstrong, Jackson & Durst he worked on a project auditing the Missile Defense Systems for DCAA. He actively audits federal, city and county entities as well as insurance companies, school boards, universities, and a variety of other federal and state funded agencies. He lectures on accounting and tax issues to various not-for-profit, community, and civic organizations, and is a member of the United Way East County Advisory Committee, and Spring Valley Planning Group. His professional affiliations include the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the California Society of Certified Public Accountants, the American Association of Hispanic Certified Public Accountants, the San Diego Hispanic Chamber of Commerce as well as various other organizations. He earned a B.S. in Accounting from Simpson College.